FROM THE EDITOR

It has been my policy to answer each subscriber personally if they have any questions about Martins or other research material in my files. Due to the increased number of subscriptions I regret my personal replies may take a little longer than I originally anticipated. So, until I can answer your specific questions here are some guidelines that I am sure you are familiar with, but let me state them to make sure you aren't overlooking valuable records in your Martin research.

1. Contact every relative and ask them for information they may have in the form of Bible records, obituaries, marriage notices, death certificates, newspaper clippings, personal diaries, old letters. Also, ask if they know anyone that has such information.
2. Most local libraries have biographical information in the form of Biographical and Historical Books of their county or loose biographical sketches on file. Write and ask.
3. Write the courthouses and ask for wills, intestate papers, marriage records and death records. Be specific and give the person's name(s) & an approximate date of the record you want. Enclose a small check and a self addressed stamped envelope to get a reply.
4. Death records give very complete information. Unfortunately, not all states kept death records before it became a law around 1900 in some states. Normally the death record contains full name of the deceased, his exact age, wife(s), names and birthplace for parents. If the county courthouse doesn't have the death certificate they will be able to tell you who to contact.
5. Don't forget, marriage bonds in most states list the parents or close relatives who posted the bond or who were witnesses. Write for copies of these original marriage bonds to see what they contain.
6. Church records will sometimes give a complete family history. Catholic churches generally have the best records but several others have been known to keep excellent records of births, marriages and deaths. If you aren't sure which church your ancestors belonged you should include all churches in the area in question. Write to the minister and see if he has custody of the old records or if they have been deposited in a central location and where.
7. One of the most tedious, but most rewarding searches for information will be the old newspapers because the information they contain can be a gold mine. Especially in small communities (as today) everything happening to any resident made the news. Articles you would expect to find include: relatives visiting from out of town, new residents, settlements of estates & deeds, public notices, legal proceedings, business acquisitions and sales, gossip, scandals and, of course, birth, marriage and death notices (especially by violence). The best of all is to find an article about a family reunion and who came.
8. Don't forget pension records. If your ancestor was between 14 and 60 during any war there may be military, pension or bounty land information for him with genealogical information - write the National and State Archives who have these records.
9. Deeds will often tell where an ancestor came from or where he was going. Buyers and sellers were oftentimes related - sons, daughters, uncles, etc.

I realize that if you haven't been doing active research these guidelines seem like monumental tasks, but if you take them one at a time & keep at it the rewards far exceed the effort.

A SASE is a common courtesy if you expect a reply. If you believe yo reply is being unnecessarily delayed a telephone call works wonders t an individual or a courthouse.

MARTIN FAMILY OF VIRGINIA

A confusion has arisen at times in the identity of the several men named JOHN MARTIN living in Va. during the period from 1730 to 1790. This confusion should be dissipated somewhat by a study of the will of John Martin probated in Goochland Co., Va., April 15, 1787, in conjunction with the two widely quoted English wills of his brothers, the REV. HUDSON MARTIN and SPARKES MARTIN.

The following will of John Martin of Goochland Co., Va. is on file in Goochland County Courthouse, Va. This copy was made from the will in the possession of MR. CHARLES MARTIN of Greenfield, Nelson Co., Va., the great grandson of John Martin, who owns and lives on the old Hudson Martin estates. (1930)

In the name of God. Amen, I, John Martin, of the county of Goochland, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory, thanks be to God, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following; first my will is that my body be decently interred at the discretion of my executors, hereinafter named.

Item: as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.
Item: whereas by a will bearing the date of April 3rd, 1755, which is now among my papers, made then by the Rev. Hudson Martin, of the Parish of Corston, in the County of Somerset, I am entitled to several estates in England after the death of his relict, ABIGAIL MARTIN, who is since deceased several years, as appears by letters among my English letters, but not being fully satisfied in respect to the value of these estates therefore, my will is that it be divided in manner following:
Item: my desire is that all my just debts be paid out of the estate if I have not sufficient in Virginia.
Item: then of the clear estate that shall be left I give one third part to my son, Henry Martin, now in England, to him and his heirs forever. But if it should hereinafter be heard that my son, Henry, be dead and without heirs that then the said one third part before given be equally divided between my daughter, MARY VAUGHN, and my son, HUDSON MARTIN, & their heirs forever.
Item: I give to my daughter, Mary Vaughn, one third part of the said estate, to her and her heirs forever. I also give unto my said daughter two feather beds and furniture that are now at Mr. Matthew Vaughn's and what other things are belonging to me there to her and to her heirs forever.
Item: I give to my son, Hudson Martin, all my books, mathematical and surveying instruments of what kind soever and all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, all my wearing apparel together with all my debts and everything to me not mentioned in this will before and not before given, to him and his heirs forever.
Item: I do constitute and appoint my son Hudson Martin and my son-in-law, Mr. Matthew Vaughn, executors of this my last will and testament, and I do revoke all former wills heretofore made by me and I do declare this to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I the said John Martin, the testator, to this my last will and testament have set my hand and seal this 30th day of June 1781. (signed) John Martin (seal)

Signed, sealed, published and delivered by the testator as and for his last will and testament in the presence at us who at his request and in his presence subscribed our names as witnesses hereunto: John Martin Tarleton Hines. Hales Richardson.

At a court held in Goochland Co., Va., the 15th day of April, 1787, t will and testament of John Martin, deceased, was presented in court b Matthew Vaughn the executor therein named and proven by Tarleton Hine Hales Richardson two of the witnesses, and at a court held for the co of Goochland on the 15th day of June 1788 this will was ordered recor and on the motion of Hudson Martin & Matthew Vaughn, Gents., the Exec tors therein named made oath & gave bond in the penalty of 3000 pound & probate was granted them in due form of law. (An appraisal of John Martin's estate in Albemarle was also ordered).

This will proves beyond dispute two important facts: (1) which John Martin was the brother of the Rev. Hudson Martin of the English will dated 1755 and (2) that the descendants of this John Martin must come through his three children: Henry, Hudson and Mary.

(1) The English will of the Rev. Hudson clearly establishes Sparkes M tin as a second brother of John Martin of the Goochland Co., Va. will 1787 and this is further confirmed by the English will of Sparkes Mar Sparkes Martin's will in England was made in 1786, probated the 3rd o of August 1787, a few months after the date of probate of John Martin will in Goochland Co., Va. which accounts for the fact that John Mart didn't mention any prospects or any expectancy at inheritance of or from the estates of his brother, Sparkes Martin. These two brothers died about the same time.
(2) The children of John Martin were: 1. Henry Martin who accordin his father's will was in England in 1781. Family tradition says tha died on a voyage to or from England and that he left no children. 2 Mary Martin who married Matthew Vaughn and had no issue. 3. Hudson Martin who was the lieutenant and quartermaster in the Revolution. inherited his father's English letters and papers and had in his pos sion copies of these English wills. All of these documents were sti in the possession of his grandson, Mr. Charles Martin of Greenfield, Nelson Co., Va. Copies of these wills had been made and distributed among various members of his family and through this means knowledge their English family and their lines of descent has been with this f ily from the beginning.

Mr. Charles Martin inherited the estates of his grandfather, Hudson tin, the son of John Martin, in Nelson Co., Va. and his sons lived o these estates in 1930.

John Hudson's will of the City of Bristol, England, proved the 13th of Oct. 1725, mentions: his son-in-law, Roger Martin, gr. sons, Geo & Henry Martin and gr. daughter, Mary Martin; gt. grandsons Hudson M tin and Roger Martin and gt. gr. daughter, Mary Martin. (The posses sions named in this will seem to be the same that are later devised the Rev. Hudson Martin in his will (See Va. Hist. Mag., Vol. 15, p.

Hudson Martin, a son of Henry Martin of Bristol, England, Gent., ent Jesus College, Oxford the 26th of March 1728, age 17 years, received B. A., 1731 and his M. A., 1734. He was the Hudson Martin whose Eng will was dated 1755. He m. Abigail Jennings who died before 1781 ac cording to the will of John Martin of Goochland Co., Va. This Hudso Martin left no children.

From the will of the Rev. Hudson Martin of England we learn that their mother was still living in England in 1755 and we get a more complete list of the brothers and sisters living in England as well as those in America.

1. Rev. Hudson Martin, b. ca. 1711, d. 1755, m. Abigail Jennings who survived him several years. They left no issue.
2. Sparkes Martin m. Martha _____ and resided on the estate inherited from his Sparkes' ancestors in Pembroke, died 1787.
3. John Martin who settled in Virginia before 1755 and died 1787.
4. Henry Martin who settled in Virginia before 1755 & died without issue.
5. Elizabeth Martin who m. Samuel Phelps and inherited the Sparkes Martin estates under certain limitations. She died in 1809.
6. Mary Martin who m. John Hoare.
7. Catherine Martin who m. Captain James Jones of England.
8. Frances Martin who m. Barrat Bowen of England.

Their parents were Henry Martin of Bristol, England and his wife, Mary Sparkes of Withy Bush House, Pembroke.

Sparkes Martin and his wife & infant son & Mrs. Elizabeth Phelps & others of her family are buried in Uzmaston Church in County of Pembroke. In the Temple Church of the City of Bristol, England lie buried the Hudsons and the Martins of this family. Henry Martin was church warden there in 1719.

The tax books from 1762 to 1787 show John Martin in Goochland Co., Va. owning two older slaves named, Ned and Fanny and a younger slave. His son, Hudson Martin, was a large slave holder and held large estates.

His daughter, Mary Martin, m. Matthew Vaughn before 1767. He was an officer in the Revolution. Their children are given in the Douglas Register of the St. James Northam Parish. Miss Stella Bass of the Va. State Library, Archives Division was a descendant of this Mary Martin through their daughter, Ann Vaughn.

Hudson Martin, the son of John Martin in Va. m. Jane, the daughter of Nicholas Lewis and Mary Walker, his wife, & the gr. daughter of Dr. Thomas Walker. This Hudson Martin was the only son of this John Martin to leave Martin descendants. He was an officer in the Revolution and prominent in the affairs of Albemarle, Amherst & Nelson Cos., Va. where he owned and managed a large estate which he left to his children.

The brother of Sparkes Martin & of the Rev. Hudson Martin is not the John Martin of the "silver cup" legend in the colony. Neither is he the John Martin who married Martha Burwell. John Martin can be further distinguished from his contemporary. Col. John Martin also of Goochland Co. by the following data taken from the tax books of that county in the archives of the Va. State Library.

John Martin appears on these books in 1782 in the 1st dist. - 1 white male tithe; 1 slave, Ned, 2 horses, 4 cattle, in 1783 he has 3 horses & 13 cattle; in the next year he is in the sixth dist. & he has slaves named Ned, Fanny & an infant, 3 horses & 10 cattle. This seems to be continued on until 1787 when he is no longer on the tax lists.

The other Martins in Goochland Co., Va. are thus accounted for in the tax lists during this time.

1782, John Martin, Sr. - 1 white male tithe, slaves, Thornton, Matt, Jack, Mingo, Frank, Jacob, Betty, Critty, Cate, Amy, Silver, Betty, Ju Hannah, Aggy, Charles, 10 horses, 22 cattle. 1783, the same sort of r turn is made by this John Martin. In 1784 & 1785 he has 3 white tithe John Martin, Peter Martin & Edward Martin & the same long list of sla This shows that this John Martin had two sons probably who came of ag about this time. In 1787, he is called Col. John Martin & has Edward Martin still in his home. In 1787, William Martin reports 2 male whi tithes, over 21 himself, and a John Martin probably a son, just came age.

Then a William Martin (overseer) is given in 1787 & David Martin, Sr. David Martin, Jr., Thomas Martin, Mitchell Martin, each one as heads families. 1789 adds a Jacob Martin to this list. 1790 adds a Franci Martin to this list.

In 1793, the tax lists still give the Col. John Martin as a large sla holder and the other Martin men about the same with these items of in mation. Thomas Martin has William Martin in his family making two wh tithes. John Martin has Anthony Martin, David Martin has John & Jame making three male whites over 21 years of age. Ann Martin (of Willia is taxed with property showing that William Martin has died and left widow, Ann Martin.

These tax returns for Goochland Co. thus give us a Col. John Martin w sons, Edward, William, John & James & show him as a large slave holde wealthy planter. He was still living in 1800 (as far as this examina tion was carried). He was not the John Martin who was the brother of the Rev. Hudson Martin of England nor the father of Hudson Martin of Nelson Co., Va. Then in Goochland Co. David Martin with sons, John, James, Robert & William. A William Martin with a son John. This Wil died about 1792 or 1793 leaving a widow, Ann. A Thomas Martin with a William coming of age in 1793 & a John Martin with a son Anthony of a in 1793. Goochland Co. records would show these families and by elim ating John Martin of the 1787 will from any connection with them wou help to keep their records clear.

MARTIN WAR OF 1812 PENSIONS

The Index to War of 1812 Pensioners is contained in 102 rolls of microfilm. All of the Martins are on Roll 63. Each entry in the Index gives the soldier's name, his widow's first name, the company in which he served, the state from which he fought and the pension claim number.

Most of these pensions were issued under the Acts of Feb. 14, 1871 and March 9, 1878. Earlier acts were only for death or disability pensions. Widows were eligible for a pension if they were married to the soldier before the Treaty of Feb. 17, 1815.

Most of the pensions contain the age, residence, service, place of enlistment and rank of the soldiers. Widow's applications usually give the age of the widow, her maiden name, date and place of marriage and date and place of the veteran's death and sometimes more genealogical information.

Beginning with this issue of the Quarterly I will start to run the info. contained in this Index. There are over 200 Martin pension applications on file in the National Archives for these Martin men who were pensioned. Copies of these applications may be ordered in the same manner as the Revolutionary pension applications discussed in Vol. I, #3 of the Quarterly. The claim number is not necessary to obtain a copy of the pension and bounty land applications should be ordered separately.

The entries will all look like the ones that follow:

Martin, Aaron, widow, Elizabeth M., Pvt. in Captain Edward Fuller's Co., N. H. Militia, #W032,571 & WC26,808.

Martin, Abraham, no widow listed. Service: Captain Henry R. Ruff's Co., Md. Militia. #S05828 & SC11351.

DR. S. D. MARTIN - CLARK CO., KY.

FROM A CLARK CO., KY. NEWSPAPER, 1881.

Dr. Samuel Davis Martin, one of the oldest and, in his day, most use citizens of Central Kentucky, died at his home in this county last S urday night between 12 and 1 o'clock.

He was born where he died on the 17th day of January 1791 and conse- quently was in the ninety-first year of his age. Kentucky, when he into the world, was a county of Virginia and after the new Commonwea was created this was a part of the County of Fayette. And thus it w that Dr. Martin, although never resident beyond the present bounds o Clark, yet lived in two states and two counties of this state. He w the son of Major John Martin, a Revolutionary Soldier, who came to K in 1781 from Albemarle County, Va. His mother was Elizabeth Lewis, was an aunt of Lewis, of Lewis and Clark expedition. His father had eight children, six of whom were sons, viz: Thomas, George, James, John L., Robert and the Doctor. His sisters were Mary who married G Dick Taylor of Frankfort and Eliza the wife of N. P. Taylor of St. L

The Doctor graduated from the medical department of the Transylvania University and it is said rode home while a student there, when ther were no fences between his home and Lexington and never missed a lec At the age of eighteen he joined the Methodist Church and ever after led a consistent, pious, godly life. His membership was always at Ebenezer and no man during his day took more interest in the prosperity and welfare of his church.

With the exception of a few years in Winchester, the Doctor passed his life on the farm where he died. His practice was very large so long as he was able to meet its requirements and extended throughout and beyond the bounds of the county. The poor never called on him in vain, and he did an immense amount of work for charity's sake. Up to a very short time before his death he continued to go to see some of his sick neighbors who were anxious to have the benefit of his wisdom and experience. He took much interest in agricultural matters and in 1839 together with Hubbard and J. P. Taylor imported a lot of Shorthorn cattle. They were Beauty, by Laurel (2181); Jessy, by Penipo (4724); Leonida, by Red Simon (2499); Sprightly, by Ritz Roslyn (2026) and the calf, Rosalie, by Cadet (1770).

Shortly after this he began to gather the materials for an American herd book and did much valuable work in preserving pedigrees, but the cares of his profession prevented its completion.

The Doctor took much interest in meteorology and for more than forty years sent reports to the department at Washington.

He contributed frequently to the medical journals and was a close observer and good talker. When 21 years of age, he married Elizabeth, daughter of Johnathan Taylor of this county. They had fourteen children, eleven of whom lived to maturity. His wife has been dead about 17 yrs and was a model woman. His funeral was preached Sunday afternoon by Rev. S. S. Pentz at his late home. It is strange to think that one who lived here before Kentucky was a state should have been among us only a few days ago. Few men have lived better or more useful lives than Dr. Martin. Always temporate and industrious, just in his dealings with his fellows and peaceably inclined, he had the warmest affection of his family and the most unbounded confidence of all who knew him. The Doctor was never an aspirant of popular honor but...(a poem followed).
